FROM: Murray H. Dubbin [Signature]

SUBJECT: Proposed Amendment to City Code section 2-487 regarding "Prohibited Campaign Contributions by Vendors."

Miami Beach City Code section 2-487 states that campaign donors are "disqualified" from serving as a vendor with the City during the 12 months following the swearing in of an elected official/donee. Pursuant to the request of Miami Beach City Commissioner Jose Smith, the attached ordinance has been drafted for the purpose of defining the term "disqualified", so as to express the legislative intent of this measure as originally adopted in 2000—the subject amendment thus expressly provides for the termination of a donor's existing contract, as well as said donor's disqualification for award of contract, in the absence of waiver.

This measure was passed on first reading by the City Commission on May 5, 2004.
